Subject : A Novel CIA Guest Lecture Presentation

Jack

1. The Yale University Band, suitably uniformed, wowed a New York audience with a John Philip Sousa concert at Carnegie Hall Monday night. Even the cynical Harold Schonberg of the NEW YORK TIMES mellowed.

2. I would suggest that whoever runs the Agency's guest lecturer program explore the possibility of having the Yale band do an outdoor repeat of its New York concert here under the porte cochere astride the Main Entrance. In late Spring, Summer or early Fall, the weather should be salubrious and the open space would hold ten times the people who can be accommodated in the Auditorium. Morale-wise, the impact could be far greater than that resulting from a discussion of "Two Germanies," for example.
